OAK of JERUSALEM.

NAMES

A.

G. Αμβροσια.

L. Botrys or Ambrosia.

I. Botry.

G. Trauben kraut.

F. Pyment.

S. Ambrosia Yerva.

D. Ambrosia krynt.

PARTS USED

The Whole Plant.

PREPARATIONS

None.

PLACE.

This Plant grows in Warmer Climates, with us only in Gardens.

TIME

August, the Seed is ripe in Sept.r

DESCRIPTION.

This Plant which grows about Eighteen Inches high, has a Chaneld Stalk that is bent at every Leaf, the Leaves are of a middling Green, rather inclining to Yellow; having few Veins and those deep. It produces abundance of Small Flowers of a Green, lighter then the Leaf, and Inclining to a Yellowish White. On the Seed vessel is a small white Style. the Seed is small, Black, and shining. 1 the Plant. 2 the upper part of it Cut of at 3. This Plant has a Pleasent Scent.

VIRTUES.

This Plant is accounted Warm, and usefull in some Cases to Women.

T. Sheldrake delin. C. H. Hemerich Sculp.